

Blackline Master Quizzes for Ancient History: Britain –Stonehenge to Celtic Iron Age Hill Forts

Blackline Master 1A Quiz

Program 1: Britain – From the Stone Age to the Invasion by Rome

1. The term Neolithic refers to
 - a. The Bronze Age
 - b. The Stone Age
 - c. The Iron Age
 - d. The Copper and Tin Age

2. Which geologic feature helped create the uniqueness of Ancient Britain?
 - a. The Alps
 - b. The highlands of Scotland
 - c. The English Channel
 - d. All of the above

3. Neolithic henges are
 - a. Circular or semicircular ditches
 - b. Passage graves
 - c. Ring cairns
 - d. None of the above

4. The oldest complex structure built by humans still standing today is
 - a. King's Quoit
 - b. Tinkinswood
 - c. Avebury
 - d. Stonehenge

5. Bronze is made by alloying
 - a. Copper and lead
 - b. Tin and lead
 - c. Copper and gold
 - d. Copper and tin

6. The finest passage grave in Wales is
 - a. Bryn Celli Ddu
 - b. Avebury
 - c. Tinkinswood
 - d. St. Lythans

7. During the Iron Age in Britain, simple pastoral villages were replaced by
 - a. Henges
 - b. Hillforts
 - c. Castles
 - d. All of the above

8. Rome invaded Britain in 43 A.D.
 - a. True
 - b. False

9. Before the Roman invasion, Celts invaded and conquered Britain, driving out the original inhabitants
 - a. True
 - b. False

10. King Arthur, Merlin and the Knights of the Round Table are legends from
 - a. France
 - b. Rome
 - c. Germany
 - d. Britain